TO SERVE GLOBAL CHILDREN’S DAY | MARCH 20, 2021

I WILL GO
Jesus said to me one day, “Whom shall I send; who will go for me?”
Gingerly I raised my hand and said, “Here am I, Send me.”
Yes, I Will Go to share your love with many who’re in need;
I Will Go and tell them that your love is ever so wide and deep.

Jesus, you walked the streets to preach, befriend, and heal;
Teaching me that I ought to follow your love and zeal.
I Will Go to serve my community far and near;
Helping refugees, homeless, and the elderly so dear.

Jesus pointed to me that day, asking me once again,
“Did you see that little boy whose shoes were worn and torn?
A homeless woman searching for scraps of leftover corn?”
Oh yes, I saw them, reminding me never ever to complain.

Here Am I, Lord, Send Me
I WILL GO
I will serve You faithfully,
Here Am I, Lord, Send me
I WILL GO!

A Prayer

Dear God,

Please bless our hearts, hands, and minds as we go into the world.
Help us to be kind to our friends, family, strangers.
Lead us as we go into communities, churches, and schools.
Prepare our hearts with the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
Give us strength to not give up.
Lift us up when we fall and feel alone.
Light our path as we spread the good news.
Provide the resources that will help people to know more about you.
Guide our thoughts towards you.
Keep our focus on you when we get lost.

We will go to serve those who need encouragement, food, clothes, love, and support.
Thank you for your everlasting love. Amen.

Look up some other gifts and try to do your own puzzle. You can read about spiritual gifts in 1 Corinthians 12:4-11 and Romans 12:6-8.

The Bible tells us that we all have special gifts or talents we can use to serve others. Let’s read this. Have two or three children read aloud Romans 12:4-6 and 1 Corinthians 12:5-10, then ask:

- What kinds of gifts do you think these two passages are talking about?
- Which kinds of gifts do you see in your family, friends and church members?
- What gifts do you have that you could use to serve others?
- How can you discover what gifts you have to serve others?

God has given each of us special gifts to use for Him. Now let’s find out more about how to use those gifts to serve God. Invite a few children to read aloud Psalm 100:2, Proverbs 22:9, Luke 3:10-11, then ask:

- What do these passages say about how we should serve God?
- Is it difficult to use these gifts to serve others? Are there challenges?
