Day 1

Where are you?

“Then the Lord God called to Adam and said to him,
‘Where are you?’ ”
Genesis 3:9 (NIV)

Key Focus:
God wants to reunite with us

Key thought

When God created Adam and Eve, they enjoyed time together each day. God warned them not to eat the fruit from the tree of knowledge of good and evil. But they chose to listen to the serpent. Adam and Eve disobeyed God and were afraid to meet Him. They knew they had done wrong and hid from God. But God loved them, called out for them and asked "Where are you?" He knew where they were but gave them a chance to reveal themselves. They came out and He forgave them and covered their shame.

Praying for a Reconnected Heart

Dear God, our heavenly Father, thank you for loving me even when I have done wrong. Thank you for never giving up on me. You promised that if I confess my sin, You will forgive me. Please give me a new heart to love you more and a desire to be with you each day.

In Jesus Name, Amen

Key Thought

Altars have always represented places of dedication and remembrance. It is a symbol of a personal connection with God. God promised Abraham that He would be the father of many children and that He would give the Land of Canaan to his descendants. To honor and worship God, Abraham built an altar. This promise and act of worship was passed on to Abraham's son, Isaac and also to his grandson Jacob. Through their examples, the Israelites built altars to honor and worship God. We are also reminded to worship and talk to God daily.

A place for Remembering

Dear God, our heavenly Father, thank you for all you have done for me. I want to give honor, praise and worship to you. Help me to remember your love and goodness and from now on to worship You each day. In Jesus Name, I pray, Amen

BACK TO THE ALTAR

Key Thought

On the way to the Promised Land, the Israelites were wandering in the desert. God instructed them to be connected with Him by praying in the morning and evening each day. They needed God's protection, courage and strength for the difficult journey. They were to worship and offer sacrifices on the altar in the morning and evening. It was a time of thanksgiving and repentance. It was also a special time for them to listen to God's voice and receive His blessings. It is the same for us today. God wants to have that special time with us too.

The Rhythm of Life

Dear God, our heavenly Father, thank you for reminding me that I can talk to You anytime. I know You love me so much and want to speak to me. Let me not be distracted by things that take me away from you. I need Your help to form the habit of starting and ending each day with You. May my ears be opened to hear Your voice and my heart be ready to follow You. In Jesus Name, Amen

Key Thought

The evil King Ahab and his wife Jezebel ruled Israel. Because of their evil influence, many of God's people have forgotten God and neglected worship. God called Elijah the prophet to rebuild the broken altars. When Elijah rebuilt the altars, he was showing the people the need to rebuild their relationship with God and to come back to Him. Elijah reminded the people to go back to worshipping the true God.

Key Thought

When Jesus was on this earth, He woke up early in the morning before the sun rise. He would go to a quiet and secluded place to talk and to listen to His heavenly father. One day, after a full day of working and ministering to people, His disciples could not find Him. They searched for Him everywhere and when they finally found Him, they asked him where He was all that time. He reminded them that He came to earth to preach the gospel and bring salvation to people. He prayed for guidance, power and courage from His heavenly Father to carry out His mission each day.

Prayer Time

Early Will I Seek Thee

Dear God, our heavenly Father, forgive me for neglecting to spend time with You. Thank you for your patience. It is a privilege and honor for me to begin each day with you. Help me follow Jesus' example of quiet time with You so that I can listen to Your direction. Please guide and lead me so that I will always be in line with Your purpose for me.

Key Thought

Jesus was known to spend the whole night praying. On one occasion, He stayed up all night to pray before choosing 12 men to be His disciples. It was not easy to choose men who would continue the work when He returned to heaven. After He had chosen His disciples, He prayed for them. He also prayed for those who were in need. Do you know that Jesus also prayed for Himself? He asked God for wisdom and strength. Prayer was His source of strength to overcome temptations and challenges that were ahead of Him.

Ending the Day with God

Dear God, our heavenly Father, teach us how to pray and make prayer time a priority. When the day ends, I just want to thank You for all that you've done for me. I could not have made it through the day without You. Thank you for Your protection and guidance. Help me to make right choices for I am nothing without You. ### Key Thought

In Bible times, the Israelites erected altars to worship God, to give honor, and praise. Fathers and Mothers should always pray for themselves and their children. God instructs fathers to be the priest in the home where he leads in family worship, every morning and evening. The family unit, which consists of father, mother and children, are to gather at regular times to pray together. God abides in a home where families gather each day to worship and sing praises to Him. He sends angels to homes where hymns are sung and prayers are uttered.

Key Thought

In the book of Revelation, John wrote about Jesus coming. There were three flying angels with important messages for the people. The first angel reminds us to worship God for He is coming soon, the second angel predicted the fall of Satan's deception, and the third angel warns us to turn away from the enemy. Our church proclaims the End-Time Messages through the three angels, because He wants everyone to repent and worship Him before it is too late. His greatest desire is for everyone to be saved and be reunited with Him in heaven.

Devotional Life and the End-time Message

Prayer Time

Our dear heavenly Father, Mighty Creator God, I come humbly before You. You are the God that is worthy of my praise and worship. Fill me with Your Holy Spirit that I may be like You. ### Key Thought

Many bad things are happening around us and we see evil people who are doing bad things. This happens when they do not have God in their hearts. They allow evil thoughts to fill their minds by doing things that are against God's instructions. Our minds control our words and actions. When we fill our minds with good thoughts and focus on God, we allow God to come into our hearts. Spending time in praise, prayer and reading our Bible and sharing His love to others keeps us close to Him. Through our loving ways and lifestyle, people are able to see God's love in us.

Worship Keeps the Mind

Our dear heavenly Father, King of the Universe. Forgive me for having evil thoughts. Help me from today onwards to allow You into my mind and heart. I want You to live in my heart so that everything else will be secondary. Take away whatever things that will distract me from being with You. Help me to make right choices and keep my heart pure. ### Key Thought

God showed Prophet Isaiah a vision of Himself on the throne. It was a beautiful and glorious picture and yet Prophet Isaiah felt that he was unworthy to be in God's magnificent presence. However, God revealed this vision to call Isaiah to spread the message of love and warning at the same time. God is worthy of our worship and He wants to be with us in heaven forever. This message must be shared with others before it is too late. God calls each of us to be His messengers. But first, we have to turn back to Him in worship and prayer. When we do that, we are empowered to go. We must go now for He is coming very soon.

Empowered to Finish the Work

Our dear heavenly Father, Mighty Creator God, thank you for calling me to serve You and share this important message.

Even though I may be young, I can still do my part. Please forgive me for my mistakes and not following Your call. Your love is not just for me but for everyone. You want all of us to be with You in heaven. Please give me courage and wisdom to be Your messenger in sharing Your love.
